TESTIMONIALS

"We filmed a travel episode in Vienna and we couldn't have asked for a friendlier, more knowledgeable, or more professional guide than Anca. Dream, Book, and Travel was the best choice when it came to organizing the itinerary and logistics for our production team. I highly recommend their services to anyone looking to enjoy Vienna at its best."

Mircea Barbu, journalist at NCN TV Cluj

"I met the team behind Dream, Book, and Travel while traveling this summer. For planning my upcoming trip to Romania, they were able to guide me based on my travel interests. Their personalized itineraries are very helpful."

Lynn Christine @littlemissnomadtravels

"It has been a pleasure working with Anca. She has written a number of well researched and insightful articles for our website. Every time we have worked with Anca, the process has been seamless. She is open to new topics and always able to provide ample ideas for each article outline. The resulting work produced is extremely well written and thorough. Additionally, each interaction we have had with Anca has been incredibly pleasant. We wouldn't hesitate to hire her in the future and would recommend her to anyone looking for a talented freelance writer!"
